WOW! What a year. We are restarting our meetings and we want you to attend.

We will again offer the opportunity for participants to network with other likeminded individuals and to expand your knowledge base along the way.

If one of the listed sessions is not in your area and you cannot attend, fear not, we will be scheduling more meetings in the near future in other locations of the state.

If you would like to host one of our meetings please notify us at the contact information to the right.
